

Breaking Down the Walls: An Immigration workshop

Why can't they stay behind the walls? They take our jobs.
They break the law. Why should we welcome them?

“at the center of Christian faithfulness to Scripture is the call we have been given to love and welcome the sojourner ...” (“Welcoming the Migrant to the U.S.”, 2012 United Methodist Book of Resolutions)

The Seattle District UMW and the PNW Conference UMW Committee on Racial Justice are offering a workshop on the complex immigration challenges and options for humane action.

Speakers: Dr. Janet Crouse (PNW Conference UMW), Rev. Lyda Pierce (Immigration Task Force, PNW Conference UMC), Rev. Larry Warren (Tacoma Detention Center Roundtable), Liz Dunbar (Tacoma Community House)

Date: Saturday June 8, 2013, 8:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Objectives:

- Explore our beliefs about immigration and relationship to racial justice
- Increase our awareness of our broken immigration system
- Hear about Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) Raids
- Learn about the Detention Center and impact on undocumented immigrants* and their families
- Hear about how Tacoma Community House supports immigration
- Learn about the current immigration legislation in states and Congress
- Take action for humane immigration reform

Undocumented immigrant is the suggested term for “illegal immigrant”*
